

Monroe Doctrine Strengthened
by League of Nations, Says
Lord Robert Cecil

Russians Denounce U. S. Policy

PARIS, Tuesday, March 18 (By the Associated Press).—Inclusion of the League of Nations covenant in the preliminary peace treaty will not delay the signing of the treaty, which, it is hoped will be accomplished within two weeks, said Lord Robert Cecil of Great Britain, talking to British and American newspaper correspondents tonight. He said that three amendments to the covenant had been submitted but added he was sure there would be no difficulty in meeting all legitimate objections.

"The Monroe Doctrine," he said, "is strengthened by the League of Nations covenant, because international action will be carried out by the organs of the League. The United States will be represented on each body and since these bodies are international, no action can be taken without the consent of all. No action can be taken by the League which is opposed by the United States government unless such action should be against the United States itself, and that would not affect the Monroe Doctrine."

"If, on the other hand, the view is that there ought to be a complete and watertight division between the American continent and the rest of the world, then no doubt any action in which America takes part would be an infringement of the Monroe Doctrine. For my part, I should regard any such doctrine as disastrous to the future of the world. The war left the United States in a position of enormous power. With that gigantic power goes great responsibility to the world at large and to herself. The peace of the world is not only a European, but an American interest. America cannot afford to say that she has no interest in what goes on in Europe. If she did, she would be false to the world at large and to herself."

agreement with those two powers and with the United States.

A Madrid despatch on March 18, which announced the naming of Senor Montorio to represent Spain at the neutral nations' conference, characterized him as a supporter of President Wilson's ideas. The Romanians government, as a whole, it was added, entirely endorsed President Wilson's proposals, reserving only its decision as to the reduction of armaments and the fixing of military forces by members of the league.

PARIS, Tuesday, March 18.—By the Associated Press.—In a report submitted today the commission appointed to consider plans for an international air code, announced that the British proposals had been in the main, accepted. An international council will be formed as a section of the League of Nations to handle all matters relative to aerial navigation.

It has been decided that each nation is entitled to sovereignty over the air above it, subject to the granting of permission for the passage of foreign aviators. There is to be no discrimination against any nation by another, air pilots will be licensed on an international basis and there will be international rules governing the right of way for aircraft.

MADRID, March 18.—The conservative newspaper Epoca in commenting on the naming of Manuel Gonzalez Montorio, a liberal deputy, as a delegate to the League of Nations conference of neutral nations, says that the selection of a person so closely allied to Premier Romanones shows that the premier intends to continue following a policy tending to closer relations with the United States.

The Epoca thinks that this is a mistake. President Wilson's views, it declares, are too idealistic, and it urges that Spain ought rather to support France and England, her neighbors, instead of distant America.

Premier Romanones, replying to the Epoca, said the foreign policy of Spain was well known, and the government had clearly revealed its intentions for the formation of the Cortes on various occasions. Consequently everybody, he added, knew that Spain had in no way turned away from Great Britain and France, but was proceeding in full

NEW YORK, March 18.—The Jacob Hoffmann Brewing company, bringing a test suit in the interest of the United States Brewers' association today applied to the federal district court for an injunction restraining the collector of internal revenue and the United States district attorney, from beginning any proceedings to interfere with its contemplated production of beer of 2 3/4 per cent alcoholic content.

NEW YORK, March 18.—William D. Guthrie, counsel for the United States Brewers' association and allied organizations announced today the opening of the legal fight of the brewers to have beer of 2 3/4 per cent alcoholic content declared a non-intoxicating beverage.

The contest against the government restriction of the alcoholic strength to less than one-half of 1 per cent, he stated, would be brought into the federal courts by the Jacob Hoffmann Brewing company, of this city, which would ask for an order restraining the commissioner of internal revenue from interfering with its contemplated production of 2 3/4 per cent beer.

The complaint of the Hoffmann company, Mr. Guthrie said, was based on the opinion rendered by his firm and Elmer Root that beer of the strength indicated, which brewers asserted was not intoxicating, could be legally manufactured and distributed under the presidential proclamations prohibiting the use of grains in the brewing of intoxicating beverages.

A legal classification of 2 3/4 beer as non-intoxicating, sustained by the United States supreme court, brewers here pointed out, would assure the future of the industry under the present food conservation laws, the war-time prohibition act, and the federal prohibition amendment.

EASTPORT, Me., March 18.—The British steamer Toga went ashore in thick fog late last night on Old Proprietor ledge, southeast of Grand Manan, N. B., according to word received here today, when the crew was landed on Grand Manan Island.

Calls For Help

BOSTON, March 18.—Word of a vessel ashore south of Grand Manan, N. B., was received at the headquarters of the first naval district here today. Her calls for help contained no indication of identity or character, but the fact that the vessel was equipped with wireless apparatus caused naval officials to believe she was a steamer.

The coast guard cutter Ossipee was despatched to the aid of the distressed vessel from Portland, Me., and naval patrol boats from Rockland, Me., and Bar Harbor, Me., were also ordered to proceed.

VLADIVOSTOK, Monday, March 17.—(By the Associated Press).—Never since the landing here of troops in August, has there been such widespread criticism of the United States. The newspapers are full of tirades and ingenious distortions of facts calculated to sow discord among Americans, Russians and America's allies. It is an unquestioned fact that there is a systematic campaign. Some newspapers of Siberia, it appears, have been subsidized and are distinctly hostile to the United States.

The Russians, never over-confident regarding the intentions of the Americans have been ready listeners and the legitimate Russian press reprints and editorializes on the fabrications that have been put in circulation.

Beginning with the disappointment over the passiveness of America's intervention, the sentiment developed mistrust and an open hostility in many quarters to the Princes' islands, proposal for a conference of all Russian factions with the allies, justly of otherwise, credited to President Wilson.

Americans were instantly dubbed friends of the Bolsheviks and the idea was quickly utilized by an unfriendly press and accepted in the political circles of the Russians generally. There is no effective means here of combating this propaganda, and the result is that the United States has few champions in any class or party. Reassurances by Major General William S. Graves, the military commander here, regarding America's non-partisanship were offset in the Russian mind which is little concerned in the fine shades of interference and non-interference by definite charges of pro-Bolshevism here and abroad arising from the refusal of the Americans to co-operate with its military against the alleged Bolsheviks in the Amur district. The giving of asylum to the revolting Cossacks recently was construed in a similar way. This incident, however, was the only one of a maligning character to draw fire. Col. Henry Styr, who has been active for the Americans in the Cossack controversy, wrote to the newspapers an explanation of the affair in which he fully outlined the stand taken by General Graves.

Other distiches have been received in silence and as a consequence, the loyal friends of the United States among the Russians are wavering. The silence and a non-policy of the Americans are plainly getting on the nerves of the Russians. France and England have few troops here and these are not actively engaged, but their commissioners are visiting and counselling the Omsk government with the result that they are being credited with being the best friends of Russia. The Japanese are regarded as having rendered positive service in a military way. Only the Americans to whom the Russians looked for help and sympathy, are considered to have failed, not because of their failure to send more troops, a hope which has long since been abandoned, but for lack of moral and material support such as other nations are giving.

This is not solely the government's view, though it naturally craves sympathy and aid.

Among its officials there are others who resent the presence and passivity of the troops and the alleged encroachment by America of their enemy, the Bolsheviks. A representative of the Omsk government, in discussing the situation, confessed himself and his superiors mystified by the silence

SWITZERLAND TO USE THE RHINE

PARIS, Tuesday, March 18.—(By the Associated Press).—The commission on international waterways, ports and railroads of the peace conference, decided today to recommend to the conference that Switzerland be given the navigating facilities on the Rhine for which she has asked.

AMEND MILITARY
TERMS OF TREATY

PARIS, Tuesday, March 18.—By the Associated Press.—The military terms of the treaty of peace have been amended by the elimination of the clause providing for the control of Germany's armament for an indefinite period. Admiral W. S. Benson of the United States navy pointed out that the original terms committed the United States to virtually indefinite occupation of Germany, and it was chiefly on his insistence that the terms were modified. American delegates also pointed out that control of any portion of Germany for such a period would delay the return home of American troops.

LODGE-LOWELL DEBATE

Don't Weep Because You Didn't Get a Ticket—
Good Debates at Home

Just because you happened to be one of the sons or daughters of fortune who were lucky enough to have somebody down in Boston pick your name out of thousands of others and say majestically: "Behold, to thee cometh news of great joy; thou hast been selected to attend the Lodge-Lowell debate this evening; possess, herewith, thy orange pasteboard," you needn't wait all around Lowell with your nose supremely elevated or with a "privileged character" sign pending from your raiment. We'll admit you were lucky to get the "ducket," but just because of that mere fact, you're not going to have any monopoly on intellectual progressiveness this evening. You need expect no puffing panegyric to attend your departure from the realms of our good city. You're going to be debated in copious abundance right here in Lowell tonight and this article has been destined by the muses as an article of consolation to that goodly host who will solve the League of Nations difficulty.

TO RUN CARS OVER BRIDGE

AUGUSTA, Me., March 18.—A decision that when the commissioners of Cumberland county open the Portland-South Portland bridge for public highway travel, the Cumberland County Power and Light company is authorized to operate the street cars thereon by taking certain precautions, was rendered today by the public utilities commission.

KNOWING LOMASNEY
DIDN'T HELP JOHN

"I'm a friend of Martin Lomasney. Yes, the big political boss down in Boston. Martin and I used to go to school together. Judge, although I admit that it wasn't long before he outdistanced me in study, Martin was brilliant even as a boy, and I can remember the time—"

"Were you drunk or not?" repeated the clerk for the second time. "Well, Judge, as I was saying, Martin and I—"

"One month in jail," said the Honorable, and so John Gilmere, who claims the Hub as his home, and who was present in police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness, made his way from the court room still referring to the good qualities and

WICKERSHAM IN FAVOR ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

BOSTON, Mar. 15.—Former Attorney General George Wickersham spoke here last night in support of a League of Nations as proposed by President Wilson. After reviewing the steps leading to the adoption of the peace conference committee of the draft of the league covenant, he said:

"If there is to be any League of Nations responsible for the overthrow of the Teutons powers, to preserve the fruits of victory and to prevent unnecessary and preventable war in the future, it could be vested with no less power than is conferred in this instrument. The machinery created is to serve the essential purpose of promoting constant intercourse among the parties, arbitrating disputes and formulating recommendations for action by the nations uniting in the compact."

"In the most accurate sense of the term there is no surrender by any party of any part of its essential sovereignty, unless the agreement by each that it will not make war on the other, until the processes of arbitration or investigation shall have been exhausted."

"So, by upwards of 22 treaties now existing, the senate of the United States has compromised the sovereignty of the United States."

FLOYD BIBLE CLASS

The Floyd Bible class of the First Baptist church held its annual supper and election of officers in the vestry of the church last evening. The officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. James K. Anderson, president; Noble M. Charlton, vice president; F. C. Amador, treasurer; Mrs. F. C. Amador, secretary; Mrs. K. D. McKinnon, assistant secretary. Following the report, which was under the efficient supervision of Mrs. C. G. Anderson, and a corps of assistants from the class, Rev. G. B. Marston of the Fifth Street Baptist church gave a brief talk on "Being Laborers Together With One Another and God." George H. Taylor gave a reminiscence talk on Warren L. Floyd, the leader of the class for 35 years, and paid a fitting tribute to his sterling character and ability. Resolutions were passed to be placed upon the class records bearing upon Mr. Floyd's connection with the class, and his long service in its behalf. During the course of the evening several pleasing selections were given by an orchestra composed of Charles P. Hutchinson, Elbridge Hutchinson, violins; Mrs. E. B. Hutchinson, cornet; and Miss Geneva Charlton, pianist; also with songs by Miss Myrtle Thresher of Boston, with Miss Charlton, accompanist.

In the Indian Tribe one finds the "Medicine Man," one versed in the healing art of roots, herbs, leaves and barks. In these he discovers emollients, astringents, laxatives and tonics, all of which are prepared and offered to sufferers among the tribe. To such good, old-fashioned roots and herbs Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most efficient remedy in the world for female ills, owes its success. For forty-five years it has been restoring the women of America to health, until it is now recognized as the standard remedy.—Adv.

Two Resolutions Introduced in Mexican Senate—No Action Taken

MEXICO CITY, March 15.—Two resolutions have been introduced in the Mexican senate in connection with the League of Nations, but have not been acted upon. One expresses "sympathy and admiration" for President Wilson, and the other declares the Mexican senate "wishes that the noble democratic proposals of President Wilson, which it admires and applauds," be realized, and manifests its desire that if it has the opportunity the Mexican republic form a part of the proposed League of Nations.

Thus far these resolutions have been the only expressions available in any way indicating Mexico's stand relative to the proposed league.

The resolution regarding Mexico's participation in the League of Nations was introduced on December 13, just before the adjournment of the senate upon the completion of the first half of the present session. Its appearance in print today was the first intimation that such action had been officially projected. The lack of a quorum was given as the reason the resolution was not acted upon.

The news article carrying the text of the resolution quotes Juan Sanchez Azcona, senator from the federal district and chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, as asserting that the majority of the senate favors the league of nations and the participation of Mexico in it. Sen. Azcona declares also that while he has no official ground for the statement, he is sure that the principles of the League of Nations are in line with the ideals maintained by President Carranza.

DELAY COLLECTION OF ROYALTIES IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Tuesday, March 15.—The Mexican government has no intention of forcing the immediate collection of royalties on oil produced in this country during January and February, under the decree of President Carranza issued on Feb. 18, according to a statement authorized last night by the branch of the treasury department in charge of petroleum revenues.

It was asserted by the department that the whole problem would be laid before congress and that there would be no collection of royalties until congress acted.

TRAVELS 1000 MILES OVER SNOW TRAIL WITH INSANE INDIAN LASHED TO DOG SLED

LE PAS, Manitoba, March 15.—A royal northwest mounted police officer, Sergeant Thompson, has arrived here after "mushing" 1100 miles over a snow trail with an insane Indian lashed to his dog sled. The dogs, weak from lack of food, were barely able to drag their load into town.

Thompson brought the Indian from Trout lake, near Hudson's bay. Part of the trip was made through a blizzard.

Woman, Who Claims To Be a Hungarian Countess, Held by Federal Officers

CHICAGO, March 15.—Aurelia Bethlen, who claims to be a Hungarian countess, was held by federal authorities today, pending a hearing on a charge of sending a threatening letter to President Wilson, addressed to Paris. She says she was a lady-in-waiting to Empress Elizabeth of Austria. She was arrested last night by government operatives on a warrant sworn out by Captain Thomas I. Porter, chief of the secret service here.

According to Captain Porter, she berated the president in a five-page letter which was intercepted and also had acknowledged spreading German propaganda, both during the war and since. She said she had been gathering sociological data for a series of lectures on capital and labor and the work of the peace conference. She came to this country in 1908. Her husband died in Budapest in 1932, she said.

"I believe her to be a dangerous woman," Captain Porter said. "She is exceptionally well educated and is a rabid political fanatic."

10,000 GET 15 PER CENT INCREASE

PAWBUCKET, R. I., March 15.—Secretary Rittough of the townsmen's union received word today that the war labor board had granted the demand of textile workers in the Blackstone valley, for a 15 per cent increase in wages which will date back to July 1, and affect about 10,000 employees.

Last summer the townsmen went on strike when the mill agents refused their demands and were joined by weavers, twisters, quilters, beamers and slaters. The war labor board says the back wages are payable on or before April 15.

BARROOMS TO BE SOCIAL HALLS

LONDON, March 4 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—A bill has been introduced into the house of lords with the object of converting public barrooms into social halls. The author of the measure, Lord Lamington, proposes to transform the saloon into a house of refreshment and recreation where music and dancing will be permitted and children allowed to be present with their parents. Brewers are giving the bill their support.

"It is calculated," commented an official of the brewers' society, "to elevate the tone of public houses. I think the general view of the trade will be that it is a step in the right direction."

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives Simple Home Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Turbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Adv.

LAUD MEMORY OF GROVER CLEVELAND

NEW YORK, March 15.—Army and navy officers of high rank and men distinguished in civil life joined here yesterday in paying tribute to the memory of Grover Cleveland on the 52d anniversary of his birth.

Following memorial services in St. Paul's chapel on lower Broadway, public exercises were held in a theatre under the auspices of the Grover Cleveland association, of which George E. Parker, who was private secretary to President Cleveland, is head.

After Mr. Parker had paid tribute to Cleveland, the man, Judson Harmon, former governor of Ohio and attorney general in the Cleveland cabinet, and Chief City Magistrate Williams McAdoo, assistant secretary of the navy in Mr. Cleveland's second administration, eulogized his qualities as a statesman.

Perhaps the most personal tribute was paid by Maj. Gen. Conrad Wood, who became intimately acquainted with the former president when, as a young medical officer assigned to Washington, duty often called him to the White House.

Gas in the Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble. Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis and accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or treat it with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Eucated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and sour out of the body, soothe the stomach, neutralize the excessive acid and prevent its formation and there is no burning or pain. Eucated Magnesia in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to use and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

THREAT TO END THE WAR WITHOUT TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 19.—If President Wilson does not negotiate a peace treaty satisfactory to the senate, Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, republican, said in an address on the League of Nations before the Washington Commercial club here last night, congress may pass a joint resolution summarily ending the war with Germany without a treaty, leaving American participation in the League of Nations to future determination.

Senator Lenroot declared he favored the general plan of the league as proposed, but would not be coerced into voting for the constitution as now drawn without amendment.

Asserting that the United States today is in "a most critical situation" in American principles and ideals endangered by the plans for the league, Senator Lenroot continued:

"We are told that the president will not permit peace with Germany unless there is a constitution of the league as drawn in large part by Great Britain. We are told that this will be done to force the senate to accept without amendment this British constitution revolutionizing our government and its foreign and domestic policies. In other words, the senate is to be coerced to do something which it otherwise would not do, and public opinion in America is thus to be coerced in demanding ratification.

"In my judgment, President Wilson has once more misjudged the temper of the American people and the senate. I will not be coerced into voting for the constitution of the league and I am sure the senate will not be. If the constitution should not be amended to protect and safeguard the interests of the United States, the senate will propose such amendments as it may deem necessary."

Senator Lenroot said: "The supposed club over the senate of postponing peace is stuffed with straw."

"It does not seem to have occurred to the president that if he is not willing to negotiate a treaty of peace satisfactory to the American people, congress may itself, and undoubtedly will, pass a joint resolution declaring the war with Germany terminated. The constitution declares war and the body that is given this power unquestionably has the power to terminate the war."

"We can declare the war has ended and go on about our business, and I confidently predict that this is what will be done if the treaty is not ratified by the senate. The proposed League of Nations will then have to be considered separately if it is considered at all. By this course the United States will lose nothing, for the obligations imposed upon us by the proposed league far outweigh any possible benefits coming to us."

The senator quoted from an address by President Wilson in 1914 in which the executive said:

"We should not form alliances with any nation in the world."

"America does not need a League of Nations so much as a League of Nations needs America," said the senator in conclusion, "and the American people."

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When Constipated or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally or is feverish, stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of California Syrup of Figs, which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ple are willing to enter such a league provided that the legitimate interests of America are properly safeguarded, which they are not in the constitution as now proposed."

GREAT TROOP MOVEMENT

30,000 Officers and Men

Coming in 14 Transports and Two Warships

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Departure from France of approximately 30,000 officers and men of the American Expeditionary Forces—the largest single movement of troops since the cessation of hostilities—was announced yesterday by the war department.

The returning soldiers are aboard two cruisers, the Montana and the Pueblo, and 14 transports. Among the latter is the George Washington, on which President Wilson returned to France.

Troops making up the movement include southern and central west units and a large number of casualties. The transports and cruisers are due to arrive at American ports between March 24 and April 2.

The cruiser Pueblo is due to arrive March 23 with the Third battalion headquarters and Companies I, K, L and M of the 147th Infantry; the 11th Supply Train complete; ambulance service sections 501, 509, 516, 556, 584, 627, 628, 631, 635 and 642, and casual companies, including Massachusetts men.

The transport George Washington, due at New York March 24, has aboard the 15th machine gun battalion complete, the 11th field signal battalion complete, a detachment of the 55th service company, signal corps; 35 casual officers, 631 sick and wounded and casual companies for Massachusetts, Rhode Island and scattered destinations.

The transport Pocahontas is expected to arrive at Newport News March 29, with the First and Third battalion headquarters, medical detachment, Companies A, E, C, D, L and M of the 11th Infantry; headquarters and staff, headquarters First battalion, ordnance detachment, sanitary detachment, First and Second battalions, headquarters machine gun and supply companies and Companies A of F, inclusive, of the 17th Infantry and a small number of casualties.

The transport Santa Ana, scheduled to arrive at New York March 29, with headquarters and staff, headquarters company, ordnance and medical detachments and Batteries A to F, inclusive, of the 72nd coast artillery regiment; detachments of the Fifth artillery park, 40 casual officers and a convalescent detachment.

The transport Felix Tausig is due at New York April 2 with base hospital No. 105, a detachment of the 15th Infantry, an Ohio casual company and a company of casualties.

The transport Santa Olivia, expected to arrive at New York March 24, carries a detachment of the 147th Infantry and casual companies for Connecticut and western states.

The transport Pearl Shell, due at New York March 31, has a casual company for Iowa, and the transport Royal George, scheduled to arrive at Halifax, date unannounced, carries one casual officer.

LICENSE COMMISSION

Considerable routine business was transacted at the regular meeting of the license commission, which was held last evening with Chairman Hanson in the chair and the cases of two local lodging house keepers were heard. Both were charged with violation of their licenses in admitting to their places of business couples who were not man and wife and permitting them to hire rooms.

The defendants were Jacks George, who conducts a lodging house at 136 Paige street and Peter Patrick, whose place of business is at 212 Market street. Both were represented by Hon. Dennis J. Murphy, while Lieut. Pettie appeared for the government. After hearing the evidence the commission took both cases under advisement.

Thomas Abdullah, an honorably discharged soldier applied for a license to conduct a pool room at the corner of East Merrimack and Haver streets, but owing to the fact that Daniel J. Donahue, a remonstrant, was not present, the matter was postponed until next Tuesday night.

CALL ON MEXICO TO PROTECT AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The American embassy at Mexico City was instructed yesterday by the state department to request the Mexican government to take every possible step to insure the protection of American citizens in the territory in northern Mexico where Villista bands again have become active. The Mexican authorities also will be asked to effect the release of James E. Whitten, an American who, with Joseph Bentley, a bishop of the Mormon church and a naturalized Mexican, was captured by Villa forces near Las Cruces, Chihuahua, some days ago.

Information that Whitten was in the hands of the bandits reached the department only a short time before a telegram was received from Representative Edward L. Hamilton of Michigan, who said he had been informed by Warren and Co. that employees of the company's ranch at Ojitos, Chihuahua, were held by Martin Lopez, a Villa leader, who demanded $5000 ransom under threat of killing the prisoners and destroying the ranch. The message said the foramen of the ranch was endeavoring to raise the money.

In connection with this case the department disclosed that two days ago, it directed the embassy at the Mexican capital to urge the Mexican government to extend the protection line to the employees and the property of Warren and Co. at Ojitos.

Information now in the hands of the state department shows that the bandits have been active for at least 12 days and that their operations cover a comparatively wide range of territory.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come later.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

As a contortionist, comedian, pantomime Toto, who is headlined at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, exceeds any other performer of like gifts who has ever appeared here. Internationally famous, he has played in all of the big theatres of the world and after several seasons entertained at the New York Hippodrome. His entrance is one of the most unusual things imaginable.

Another performer of the first class is Wilfred Clarke, who, with his company in "His Reel Trouble," does some specially big work as a farceur. The little piece is played very fast, it is funny, and the situations are of the different brand. Marion Harris, singer of rousing songs, is in her work, and Arthur Stone and Marion Hayes, in "Green Goods," have a side-splitting comedy. The Oklahoma Four are western dancers and singers, working very fast, and Guerrero & Carmen make an ideal musical combination. The show opens with Norton & Noble, playing a bit of musical comedy. The Kingdrams and a film comedy are shown at each performance.

THE STRAND

Tanks in action, vividly showing the vital part played by them in the big war game, contribute one of the numerous features in "The Commander," the great war photo-drama being shown at The Strand. You know the tanks and the Tanks practically won at war at least turned the tide in favor of the allies. See how they did it and know more about the work of our boys just before the Hun cried for peace when being driven across the Rhine. It's without question one of the real war dramas of the world conflict. Don't miss seeing it.

They there's "Under the Stars in 'Day Dreams,' a picture play in which the fascinating star is seen in one of her most entertaining roles. The producer of the bill is rounded out with song numbers by Miss Calvert, a good comedy, the usual Chester O'Brien weekly, a program of unusual worth and should be seen.

Beginning Thursday and continuing through the remainder of the week Tom Mix, the cowboy star, in his latest and best film, "Hell Roarin' Reform," will be shown.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Of the many good things that Manager Carroll has offered the patrons of the Lowell Opera House none is giving more thorough pleasure than "The Great Train Robbery," which is being presented by the Emerson All Star players. The piece is a stirring dramatic effort with a sufficient counterpoint to make it all the more enjoyable. The principal male characters, all are exceptionally good and must be seen to be fully appreciated. It is a like another capacity work, judging from the advance sale. Order your tickets in advance.

Trade in Lowell with Sun advertisements and you will save money on your purchases.

Be Strong

THE strong and vigorous man or woman is envied by less fortunate humanity afflicted with aches, pains, infirmities and ailments. The sufferer says to himself, "If I could only be well, how happy I would be," for health is more essential to the joy of living than is wealth.

The kidneys almost literally wash the blood and keep it clean and free from impurities. When the kidneys are out of order, they fail to filter out this waste and poisonous matter. It remains in the system to cause backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles and still others.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the system eliminate this poisonous waste. They soothe, strengthen and heal sore, weak and diseased kidneys and bladder. When the kidneys are in good order, refreshing sleep is possible, and health and strength come again.

C. W. Smith, 1208 No. 1st St., Salina, Kan., writes: "I am very much pleased with Foley Kidney Pills. I am feeling much better and have been very much troubled with my back. I have taken several doses of Foley Kidney Pills and they have already helped me."

WAR COST 197 BILLIONS

Sec. of War Baker Says

Deaths in All Armies

Were 9,000,000

Will Be Paying War Debt

For the Next 100 Years—

Goes to San Diego

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—"The cost of the war in money alone was $197,000,000,000, or $11,950,000,000 more than the total property value of all North America," Secretary of War Baker told a gathering at the Commercial club here yesterday, following his arrival with General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, to inspect army posts.

"The deaths from wounds in battle numbered 7,000,000 and the total deaths in all the armies reached 9,000,000," he said.

Referring to the proposed League of Nations, Sec. Baker said: "Unless such an organization was formed under some constitution, anarchy, bred by disease, hunger and despair, would overwhelm the earth. No child born in a civilized nation in the next hundred years will escape paying a considerable portion of the debt this war has brought about," Sec. Baker and Gen. March departed yesterday for San Diego.

FRANCE TO BUY OUR

$165,000,000 PLANT

PARIS, March 19.—(By A. F.)—Docks, railroads, warehouses, hospitals and barracks built by the American Expeditionary Forces, to the value of $165,000,000, will be sold to France for the best figures the American liquidation commission can obtain.

Some of these can readily or probably be removed, and the only alternative is to sell at the best bargain.

The liquidation commission is now negotiating for the disposal of surplus properties belonging to the expeditionary forces. Hundreds of thousands of uniforms have been dyed so that they may now serve other armies, such as the Belgian, Polish and some of the Balkan states.

The present plan is to dispose of these surplus supplies among the governments which need them.

MINERS FOR 5 DAY WEEK AND 6 HOUR DAY

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19.—The policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America, meeting here yesterday, in the afternoon adopted three fundamental principles recommended by International President Frank J. Hayes, around which will be based the miners' demands to be presented to the operators at a conference immediately following the signing of peace.

The recommendations were referred to a sub-policy committee which will work out details of the demand. The three principles are:

A six-hour day, five days a week.

A substantial increase on all existing tonnage, day work, yardage and dead-work prices.

Government ownership of mines.

The sub-committee, after formulating the demands, will call another meeting of the policy committee, probably Thursday.

In making his recommendations yesterday President Hayes said that unfortunately the press and public have sometimes misunderstood the attitude of miners and the labor movement, and declared that the miners have no desire to attain Bolshevism and that they are not Bolshevists.

Mr. Hayes said the recommendation for a shorter workday and five days a week was offered in an effort to solve the unemployment problem and other existing situations peculiar to the mining industry.

LABOR UNION MEETINGS

An interesting meeting of the members of the Farmers' union was held last evening with President John H. Curry in the chair. The case of a member of the organization, who was recently pulled out of a non-union shop, was taken up and the members were assessed enough money individually to reimburse him as much as he was paid, until such time as employment is secured for him. It was also voted to work April 15, a legal holiday. This action was taken in return for the day and a half without loss of pay allowed the farmers by the government when the armistice was signed.

Blacksmiths' Union

President Michael Nelson presided over the regular meeting of the Blacksmiths' union, which was held last evening. The attendance was large and business transacted was held.

Peptiron is a remarkably effective, agreeable and easily assimilated combination of pepsin, iron, celery and other great tonics and digestives. ## SEN. REED DENOUNCES LEAGUE OF NATIONS

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 18.—The Missouri legislature in joint session today heard an address by United States Senator Reed of Missouri, criticizing the League of Nations constitution.

Reiterating contentions that the league would impair American sovereignty, abrogate the Monroe Doctrine, violate the American constitution, create a "super-government of the world" and force the United States into world-wide difficulties and political obligations, he challenged assertions of its advocates that the league's decrees and powers would be merely advisory. He insisted that its action would be mandatory and that it would be "command of the world."

"There are a number of advantages of the league," he said, "but seek to protect it against the indignation of the American people by arguing that the council has only the power to recommend and that it is then optional with the several nations to comply or to refuse to comply with the recommendation."

"Let us examine that misapprehension of the league," he said, "which is based upon the fact that the league is backed by a few powerful nations, and the league is an enormous thing. Why multiplying a few words about arms and navies and force if there is to be no force?"

"If, however, it is contended that the obligation is morally binding, then indeed we are worse off than the United States will keep its moral obligations, whereas some other nations might not."

"All these contentions were utterly destroyed by the president who, when he presented the league constitution to the peace council, expressly stated: 'Armed force is in the background of this program, but if the moral force of the world will not suffice, the physical force of the world shall.'"

In detail Senator Reed analyzed the league charter, declaring that the tentative constitution was of British origin but asserted that American would be directly controlled by European nations and added:

"European diplomats have skillfully woven their spider's web so that it may be caught in its meshes and may be found for all time to render our gallant sons to assist the dominant nations of the earth in policing the world and ultimately to assist some of them in the ambitious for power, or quarrels over territory."

Asserting that the league charter contained no provision for withdrawal of nations from the league, he continued:

"Those who conceived its structure did not intend to allow the United States to escape once it should fully step within the entangling web. 'The American people were told that the constitution of the league had been conceived by American representatives and was being forced on reluctant Europe. It now transpires that the entire scheme, from first to last with some slight modifications, is the product of British statesmanship.'"

This might indicate, he said, why England would outvote the United States, five to one, and be allowed to retain her fleet.

The executive council features of the plan was attacked especially by the senator.

"We thus create an oligarchy clothed with more arbitrary powers than were ever wielded by any despot of earth," he said. "Here is a tribunal of five men, without any limitations whatsoever upon their authority, against whose decision, once rendered, there is no appeal save to armed force. Against the abuse of their power, there are neither checks nor safeguards. If this be not a creation of the very command of the world, then the language of the league is backed by a few powerful nations, and the league is an enormous thing. Why multiplying a few words about arms and navies and force if there is to be no force?"

"The misapprehension thus threatened," he said, "has been recently fostered by certain distinguished men who have fortified their arguments by characterizing all those who opposed them as narrow-headed, pigmy-minded, etc., etc. It has even been suggested that those who venture to inquire ought to be hanged upon gibbets as high as heaven, but pointed in the opposite direction."

"The questionable involved are too great to be settled by the mere calling of names."

Citing questions which would be brought before the league, Senator Reed said that among them might be a grant by Mexico of land to Japan, or sale by Colombia of land to some foreign power which could erect a fortress to command the Panama Canal.

The disarmament provisions of the league charter, he asserted, would give the executive council absolute power to limit American armament, he added.

"We may be beleaguered by enemies. All the enemies of destruction may be gathering about us. Yet unless we can gain the consent of the five masters of the world (the executive council) we must remain unprepared and meet our fate with naked hands."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GATHERING

A happy gathering of children was present last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, 331 Parkview avenue, to greet their daughter Irene on her ninth birthday anniversary. Music and dancing filled the evening hours and Mrs. Wood served ice cream and cake. Flowers and other gifts made the day a memorable one for Miss Irene.

Lowell-Lodge Debate

hearty right here at home. Proceed, O Muse.

All the world will look on when Messrs. Lowell and Lodge get together, say the boosters of the Hub. For, be it well and good—but so much the worse for the world. It will be a most interesting whole series of hot debates right here in Lowell and the local mediaeval will not have the disadvantage of the inevitable embarrassment and tension that accompanies such a huge audience.

The place of the local debate? No place in particular, everywhere in general. The Lowell debates will be unusually ubiquitous. Let somebody, sometime, take three steps to the left and sit down. Where are you? A down town barber shop? Good for you—proceed with the debate.

Friend Barker will preside at this debate. The principals are Affirmative Andrew, who works long hours day in and day out as an inspector, and Negative Nathan, who carries his shaggy head down town as a purveyor of strong tonics, two strong for weather such as we shall have after July 1. Nathan has the chair—and a coat of armor.

The song rings a few minutes after Andrew enters, partially disheveled and picks up the evening paper with the announcement of the symphonetic program in Symphony hall. "Wonder how that'll come out tonight," remarks Andrew.

"What? What? What are you talking about?" splutters Nathan through the foamy crest of shaving soap.

"This here League of Nations stuff. They came near calling it the National League, didn't they? That would have been enough to crash it right at the start."

"O, I thought you were getting spring fever and talking about baseball again. Well, as for me, may I not say that in view of multi-fold principles involved it is my sincere belief that the league is a regular buster and ought to be canned."

"What ye ben reading, Nathan, the constitution? I always told you that I didn't think you were naturalized."

"Who's not naturalized? The minute I landed on Ellis Island 25 years ago the fifth of next October I told the fellow with the train conductor's hat that I wanted to become a regular taxpayer in this country and I've told you more than once before, Andrew—Recollect, man, recollect. Your lapses are most embarrassing. Didn't my boy Joe go down to Mexico to preserve the rights of the oil millionaires a couple of years ago and come back sun-burned? And didn't he stick with Co. M, drilling week in and week out in the army until they made him a corporal? And didn't he give up his good job in the Cartridge shop two years ago next spring to go out camping in New Hampshire with the company and then took a sea trip the next fall? And haven't you got a whole stack of 'A.E.F.' letters from him up in your house telling you all about how Co. M settled the war and how Joe liked the biscuits they gave him in the hospital? Naturalized? Why I'm the most natural American that ever bought a $2-a-week Liberty bond and don't you forget it, Andrew, dear."

"That towel is too hot, barber. I didn't ask for a Turkish bath. Thanks."

"Well, getting back to the topic of the evening, Nathan, as I was trying to say, I think this League of Nations is the best thing that ever happened outside of Irish independence and I'm willing to go on a campaign tour with the president if he wants to put it before the public up around Wards 4 and 5. That's how I stand on it."

"I think you're wrong, Andrew. Do you think I'd want my Joe to go over to China some, the winter's night when the Chinese and Japs get to scrapping about who are the best jugglers? Nothing doing. I believe in the theory that a man's home is his castle and his son's, too, and I don't see why he should run away from it to a scrap that has nothing to do with the safety of his home. Yes, give me a message."

"O, you're not broad-minded, Nathan; think of the big step that would be taken toward international peace if the league plan were put into effect. You've got to be big-minded on this thing. Anyway, I'll bet a quarter that Mr. Lowell is winning the debate down in Boston tonight. What do you say?"

"Make it a half and I'll take you up. He hasn't a chance in the world. The decision will be lodged with the worse for the world. You're next. Aching a whole series of hot debates right here in Lowell and the local mediaeval will not have the disadvantage of the inevitable embarrassment and tension that accompanies such a huge audience."

"The place of the local debate? No place in particular, everywhere in general. The Lowell debates will be unusually ubiquitous. Let somebody, sometime, take three steps to the left and sit down. Where are you? A down town barber shop? Good for you—proceed with the debate."

8 GERMAN SHIPS
OFF FOR FOODSTUFFS

LONDON, March 18.—Eight German steamers, including the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, the Cleveland, the Graf Waldersee and the Pretoria, sailed from Hamburg this week for foodstuffs, according to advices from Berlin. The crews made a formal demand that they should not be loaded from the vessels during the trip.

Didn't Like Tewksbury

"Booze was the cause of it all," complained William Frank of Brooklyn, when he was called to explain why he took "French leave" of the Tewksbury Jail—a few nights ago and celebrated his escape by getting drunk. "Yes, sir, Judge, the demon rum certainly has proved my downfall. They sent me to Tewksbury to get cured up but I didn't like the place so I just beat it. Booze is an awful thing."

William was present on a continuing charge of drunkenness, and the arresting officer testified that he had been placed in the aforementioned institution a few days ago but that the second day after his arrival he had been numbered among the missing. Shortly afterwards he was found on Middlesex street, after having evidently made a most enthusiastic attempt to make up for the time lost while in durance vile. He was given a suspended sentence to the house of correction, and placed in the custody of the Tewksbury officer who took him back to the institution.

Vacation For Frank

Frank L. Hill, who for the past two months has been living in North Chelmsford, was also present on a drunkenness charge. According to the story of the arresting officer, Frank had been continually abusive towards his family since his arrival in that town, and would up the other night by taking an axe and doing his best to smash up the household furniture. Frank emphatically denied that he was anything but a model husband and father but his story failed to convince the court of his innocence and he was sentenced to one month in jail.

Other Offenders

Mary Roberts and George R. Watson pleaded guilty to a statutory offense. The man drew down a fine of $10, and the case of the woman was continued for one week, bail being set at $200.

Kenneth M. Lipps pleaded guilty to a violation of the motor vehicle law and was assessed $30.

Henry P. Molloy entered a plea of guilty when charged with neglect of his wife, Bella. Henry also admitted that he had recently finished serving a sentence in the Massachusetts reformatory, and that he had been one of the young men arrested in the recent raid at one of the local hotels. A sentence of five months in the house of correction was prescribed. He appealed.

James McLean Tarsook the arid regions of the Green Mountain state a few days ago, and soon after arriving in the city of spindles forgot the dryness of his native state the while he put away several tall ones and short ones in various third emporiums in the Middlesex street section. James agreed to take the first train outward bound if given an opportunity. He was allowed three weeks in which to pay a $10 fine.

LONGWORTH HITS BACK

Replies Sharply to Mann's Recent Attack—Calls Latter G.O.P. "Incubus"

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Instead of pouring oil on the troubled political waters of the republican party, Representative Nicholas Longworth issued a statement yesterday stirring them up. He was replying to the disciplinary course adopted toward him by Representative James R. Mann, party organizer. Mr. Longworth called upon Mr. Mann to "keep his hands off."

The republican party, Mr. Longworth declared, made the record that brought it into power during the enforced absence of Mr. Mann by illness, whose leadership had been an "incubus" on the party.

It was but a few days ago that Mr. Mann said in effect that Longworth had not done anything since he had been in congress to warrant his being placed in important positions. That he was a candidate for anything is denied by Mr. Longworth.

This preliminary passage of blows is a forecast of what is to come in the next republican caucus when Messrs. Longworth, Johnson of South Dakota, Anderson of Minnesota and others of the "progressives" will adopt strenuous measures to overturn the Mann-controlled house organization.

"Full of Inaccuracies"

Mr. Longworth said: "I have read with considerable amusement, coupled with some surprise, what purported to be a statement from Mr. Mann replying to some criticisms I made recently about the proceedings of the republican committee on committees which he dominated. My surprise comes from the circumstances that Mr. Mann, usually accurate in his facts, should have given out a statement so full of inaccuracies."

"In fact, such of it as is not devoted to rather coarse personal abuse is made up almost entirely of misstatements."

"This splendid outbreak is inspired no doubt, for he admits it by the fact that some of the things I said really got 'under his hide.' His reply has had no such effect on me. It causes me no worry whatever, but this only regret that a gentleman who possesses, as Mr. Mann does, some of the qualities of a statesman, should descend to the level of personalities, which I have hitherto avoided, and should have shown himself so lacking in good taste and in choice of vocabulary."

"His statement that I wanted to be speaker, chairman of the ways and means committee and floor leader was made without any knowledge on his part, for I never consulted him on any of these matters. The plain implication that I was a candidate for any of these positions is entirely untrue. I was not a candidate for speaker, I was not a candidate for chairman of the ways and means committee, and the two votes I received for floor leader in the committee were cast over my protest. I did not cast the Ohio vote for myself, as he implies, though he was permitted by unanimous consent to cast the 22 votes of Illinois for himself."

"Lack of Good Taste"

"Another exhibition of inaccuracy and lack of good taste—not to use a harsher term—is illustrated in his statement that I was placed on the steering committee 'now, as he has been before, as a sort of tribute to Col. Roosevelt.' Here again he has not got the facts straight. I was not a member of the steering committee in the last congress and never have been until now. Mr. Mann's ignorance of this fact is due, I presume, to his absence from the house during the long session, due to his serious illness, which no one regretted personally more than I. The fact remains, however, that it was during that session that the republican party, relieved from the incubus of his leadership, made the great part of the record that caused our splendid victory at the polls in November."

"Mr. Mann's desire to pay 'a sort of tribute to Col. Roosevelt' is a worthy one, if somewhat hard to credit. Certainly he was about the last man of any prominence from whom Col. Roosevelt during his life sought any tribute. The two men did not breathe the same atmosphere. Their conceptions of public duty were about as far apart as the poles."

"It, however, is sincere in his desire to pay such a tribute, I think I can suggest a way. Let him definitely assure the country that he will keep his hands off the organization and legislative control of the new house of representatives. That is the way to bring about harmony in the party. That is the way to make success in 1920 certain. Such an assurance from Mr. Mann will be greeted with acclaim by the vast majority of republicans, and by patriotic Americans generally throughout the land."

"The splendid outbreak is inspired no doubt, for he admits it by the fact that some of the things I said really got 'under his hide.' His reply has had no such effect on me. It causes me no worry whatever, but this only

A Painful Subject For Miss Woodman

She Had Lumbago and Stomach Trouble but has Finally Found Relief

Lumbago is a form of muscular rheumatism affecting the muscles of the back, the muscles that do the heavy work. If the blood gets thin and these heavily worked muscles are undernourished they will give notice by the sharp pains that are characteristic symptoms of lumbago. The remedy is to build up the blood so that the muscles will be nourished.

The thin blood that starves the muscles of the back will also cause the digestive organs to revolt and so it is not unusual to find lumbago complicated by stomach trouble and born yielding to a treatment that really built up the blood and enabled it to carry nourishment to the organs and muscles that need it.

"I was afflicted with lumbago complicated with stomach trouble," says Miss Olive A. Woodman, who lives at No. 507 Main street, Lewiston, Maine, "and my heart seemed to be affected for I was very short of breath. I had a sharp pain in the lower part of my back, was very weak in my limbs, was pale and lost flesh steadily. I would be sick to my stomach for an hour or more at a time and had frequent dizzy spells."

"My father had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills years ago and after I had spent a lot of time on useless treatment I decided to try them. Almost immediately after I began to take them I noticed an improvement and my friends spoke of it. The pain in my back which was continuous never bothered me any more unless I over-exert myself and I am never sick to my stomach, nor am I troubled with dizzy spells. I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to anyone who is suffering with lumbago or stomach trouble. Everyone who sees me tells me how much better I appear and I certainly have been greatly benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing information about diseases of the blood will be sent free upon request.

PEACE LEAGUE BACKS ITS PRESIDENT, TAFT

NEW YORK, March 19.—The League to Enforce Peace, of which William Howard Taft is president, issued a statement last night denying that the organization is split by serious differences of opinion among officers and members over its endorsement of the Paris covenant of the League of Nations.

"Since the league announced its endorsement," the statement declared, "only eight members have resigned out of a total list of 300,000. Only three of these are officers. None of the league's 7500 volunteer speakers or 5000 clergymen all over the country has withdrawn his pledge to work under the league's direction, it asserted."

"Mr. Taft's attitude, which is substantially that of the league," the statement said, "is that he would accept the Paris covenant as it stands and thank God for it; that it does not, however, fully meet his ideals, not being as strong in some respects as the plan we have been advocating; that he would like to see amendments that would strengthen it and thinks it wise to make changes that will make still more clear the meaning which we understand it to carry. He is also favorable to making changes that will please opinion, especially in the direction of definite acceptance of the Monroe doctrine, which we understand is already the real basis of the instrument."

"Neither Mr. Taft nor the league, however, favors amendments after the treaty is finally adopted in Paris, as amendments would then probably mean defeat of the league."

BRITISH AVIATORS TO TRY FLIGHT ACROSS OCEAN

LONDON, March 19.—(By the Associated Press)—British aviators are to try for a flight across the Atlantic.

A secretly built airplane, accompanied by Harry Hawker, as pilot, and Commander MacKenzie Grieve, Royal navy as navigator, was shipped from England Monday for St. Johns, N. F., from whence it will start at the earliest possible moment in an attempt to win the Daily Mail prize of 10,000 pounds sterling for the first machine to fly across the Atlantic.

The machine is a Sopwith, two-seater biplane, with a 375 horse power engine. The fuselage is box-shaped and will support the machine in the water.

Pilot Hawker said he believed that the flight would occupy about 19½ hours. The machine, he added, had flown 900 miles in nine hours and five minutes on one-third of its petrol capacity, and is capable of maintaining a speed of 100 miles an hour for 25 hours.

Harry G. Hawker won the British Michelin prize in 1912 by a flight of eight hours and 23 minutes. He has made many long distance flights along the British coast. He established a world's altitude record of 28,990 feet in 1916.

Newfoundland lies nearer to Europe than any other part of North America, the distance being about 1900 miles.

HUNS WILL RUSH BACK TO HEAR TERMS

BERLIN, Monday, March 17 (By A. P.)—The Vossische Zeitung says it learns that the national assembly, which has adjourned until March 25, will reconvene during the course of the present week if the Paris peace negotiations are concluded by March 30. The cabinet, which is now in Berlin, the newspaper says, will return to Weimar at the end of the week.

According to the Vossische Zeitung, the plan to transfer the assembly to Berlin has been definitely abandoned. The constituents will complete their labors by the end of May and then adopt a resolution declaring for a constitutional parliament which will sit in Berlin.

The North German Gazette confirms the report that the negotiations have been complicated by Prussia's demand that Prussia be financially safeguarded inasmuch as the bulk of her revenues are derived from the railways.

The food commissioner in an interview announces that the nation's available home food stocks will be exhausted by the end of May, and from this time he will be forced to depend upon outside supplies when proportioning rations. The distribution of foreign supplies, the minister added, will be confined at the start to the metropolitan centers, which comprise populations of 47,000,000.

Reinhardt, Prussian war minister, speaking in the diet today, assailed Adolf Hoffmann, minister of education, for terming ex-emperor William a deserter.

"Any other decision which the Kaiser could have made on the 9th of November," said Reinhardt, "must necessarily have led to further sanguinary fighting and to further sacrifices, whether in battle against the enemy or in civil war. In order to prevent this, in other words through pure humanitarian and patriotic feelings, the Kaiser went to Holland."

Reinhardt declared the summary execution order of Minister of Defense Gustave Nescio, directed at rebels with arms in their hands, was required by the situation. He was interrupted continually by howls and vituperative remarks by the independent socialists.

Notwithstanding the orders for surrender of all weapons the government troops fought on Sunday in the small suburb of Adlershof 27 machine guns, 650 rifles, 221 bayonets and 475,000 cartridges. He said that the government troops of a single division had lost 20 officers and 80 men up to Thursday and he charged that some of these had been tortured by the insurgents.

Paul Hirsch, the minister president, warned the independent socialists that if depended upon them whether there must be a renewal of Minister Nescio's decree.

The newspaper serves the public in a most efficient manner, gathering the most important and most interesting things from all the news sources in this planet.

The advertiser should regard it as an important point that his ad is circulated in a medium that is read by a large and varied audience. The newspaper is the most efficient medium for the advertiser.

The advertiser's curiosity to know the news doesn't end there. He knows the news is in the newspaper. He knows the news is in the newspaper. He knows the news is in the newspaper.

The man who writes ads must answer this question, "Are there any readers that I want among the advertisements?" This may be the first and most important question. The second is to advertise things at a time when they are likely to be in demand. There is one thing more important than both these things: The load on a wagon may be important, but if it isn't a good wagon it will not carry far. Your ad is part of the "wagon." The advertising medium is the "wagon." In this way, the right "wagon" is the right "wagon."

OUR UNIT OF VALUE

Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale university, recently issued a pamphlet upon "Stabilizing the Dollar in Purchasing Power" which has caused a great deal of favorable comment. The high cost of living, so called, Prof. Fisher shows to be the lowered value or depreciation of the gold dollar due to a variety of causes, some of which in his brief pamphlet, he seems to overlook.

The purchasing power of the dollar is regulated by the volume of currency in circulation. The paper money known as green-backs is to all intents and purposes as good to the possessor as the same amount in gold coin.

In proportion as the volume of paper money in circulation increases, so will the price of commodities go up. Any great addition to the circulation medium will therefore cause prices to bound upwards.

This is what has been going on during the last dozen years and especially during the last four years, so that the people who have had to depend upon a fixed salary have found great difficulty in meeting the changed conditions. Prof. Fisher comes forward with a plan to regulate the purchasing power of the dollar at a figure that will be as nearly equitable as possible.

Our gold dollar, 23.8 grains of gold, nine-tenths fine, is a fixed unit of weight but not a fixed unit of value. The result is confusion, social injustice, discontent and disorder.

The fluctuation in the value of the dollar is a loss to some and a gain to others. Its depreciation is a loss to those who own bonds or who have to work under time contracts, but a gain to those who can pay past debts in cheaper dollars.

A stable dollar should always be equivalent in value to a certain amount of commodities. The United States bureau of labor statistics collects price quotations which show that with our unstable dollar, a given group of important commodities costs sometimes more and sometimes less than a dollar, depending not only on the fluctuation in the supply and demand of the commodity, but also on the supply and demand of gold.

The figure which indicates how the price level rises or falls each month is known as the "index number." It may not be a mathematically accurate indicator of price levels, but it is a nearly scientific one can be reached with a lot of variable conditions.

Prof. Fisher would have the weight of the gold dollar change with the index number so that the purchasing power of the dollar would remain a nearly stable as it could be possibly made.

But some will object that this would necessitate frequent changes in the size and number of our gold dollars. Not under Prof. Fisher's plan, which is to hold the gold unaccounted in the treasury and issue gold certificates which, with the government stamp, would be always good for their face value.

Under Prof. Fisher's plan, the purchasing power of the dollar would be fixed so that it would still buy as nearly as may be the same quantity of the necessities of life.

The weight of the gold dollar would follow the "index numbers" from month to month. For example, if one month the index number is found to be 1 per cent above the par value of the dollar, that would be the signal for increasing the weight of the gold dollar by 1 per cent, and so the weight would be increased or diminished from time to time according to the rise or fall of the index number, above or below the standard of value.

Prof. Fisher describes the working of this system as follows:

"Each dollar of bank notes and other fiduciary money would, at now, be redeemable in a dollar of yellowbacks and therefore such paper money would be exactly as now, at parity with yellowbacks or gold certificates. Each dollar of these yellowbacks would, in turn, be redeemable at the government offices in a gold bullion dollar and would therefore always be of equal value therewith; and finally, each dollar of gold bullion would, by periodic adjustment of its weight through an index number, be kept very nearly equivalent to the value of the list of important commodities upon which the index number is based.

"We would then be rid of a fluctuating price level with its long trains of bad consequences. The monetary yardstick would at last be standardized."

This plan seems very plausible and entirely practicable. If some such system were adopted, it would go far towards correcting the devaluation of prices due to inflation of the currency and, in some cases, to the operation of the laws of supply and demand.

Many prominent authorities including President Wilson, have endorsed the plan and with a little agitation, it might be adopted by the government.

Should our dollar be subject to change, however, it might affect our international relations, as our debts have been contracted and our loans made on the basis of a gold dollar of the present standard of weight.

RESUMING BUSINESS

The building season will soon be with us but so far as prospects go, there will be very little work in that line started here for some months. It seems that property owners and contractors are still holding back awaiting the arrival of better times. After the signing of the peace treaty, the prosperity boom that has been predicted will strike this country so suddenly that many of those who have held back will be sorry they did not start building operations when help was available and prices reasonable.

There is a great demand for American lumber in France and Belgium. Indeed, several of the leading lumber firms of this country have already taken on large contracts for lumber to be delivered in France during the summer. This demand is likely to prevent any great reduction in the price of lumber during the coming season.

There is a demand for tenements throughout the city in spite of the fact that a considerable number of people have moved away since the slowing down of the munition factories. New houses always rent readily and to advantage if in a good location.

Whether business will be resumed with the coming of spring depends largely upon the master builders and the building trades, as does what will be accomplished in constructive work during the coming season.

Our officials at city hall have not made much progress thus far toward any start upon the high school or on any of the other school buildings that are found so very necessary.

If the legislature would report favorably upon the bill for the auditorium, the commission to take charge of the work would be promptly appointed and no time would be lost in getting down to business.

It is to be hoped that all concerned will combine to help in getting the wheels of industry properly started and public confidence fully re-established as soon as possible. It all comes down to a matter of keeping business moving as usual, or in other words, of getting back to pre-war conditions.

JUDGE HADLEY

This community will deeply regret the passing of Judge Samuel P. Hadley, who had endeared himself to such a wide circle of acquaintances. Probably no other man of his day and generation was so familiar with the early history of our city. He saw the city rise from the former township to its new dignity, and he always took a keen interest in its welfare and prosperity.

Twenty-seven years on the bench of the municipal court did not steel his heart against offenders. On the contrary, it increased his sympathy for the weak, the erring and the unfortunate. He realized that even in the hardened criminal, there is usually an ambition to abandon the ways of evil and rise again to a life of honor and respectability. On this assumption, his administration of justice was usually tempered with mercy and an earnest effort to bring about the reform of the offender. He had great respect for the probation law and, in conjunction with Mr. Shattery, he watched its results with keen interest. The passing of the old judge ends a long and honorable career that was full of earnest effort for the uplift of criminals and remarkably free from anything in the nature of reproach.

ANTI-WILSON DRIVE

The drive against President Wilson and the League of Nations is being pushed ahead with all the power and influence the republican leaders can command.

It is more against Wilson than against the league. It is now evident that certain stipulations will be inserted in the constitution of the league guaranteeing the Monroe Doctrine and specifying on what conditions a nation may withdraw from the league.

The European nations are already arranging for changes to disarm American criticism in order to insure a League of Nations as without the United States, there would be no organization of the kind.

So far as the proposed amendments go, they can be inserted without affecting the scope of the league or changing its import or its intent. There is nothing in the draft as published that can be construed as a menace to our sovereignty, to the Monroe Doctrine or our complete control over such domestic questions as immigration, but there is no objection to guarantees on all these points.

HELPING THE SOLDIERS

Although late, it is still a matter for felicitation that the reconstruction committee of the legislature has reported a measure providing facilities for enabling soldiers to settle on farms. Certain concessions are to be made in the form of loans at a moderate rate of interest.

In view of the fact that the measure that was before congress has fallen by the wayside through the republican filibuster, it is necessary for the states to take the matter up and do something to assist the soldiers in settling on farms where those are available under favorable conditions.

have already moved in the directing of some such action and the Massachusetts legislature will have the cordial support of the people if it shows some business sagacity in putting this measure through in a manner that will prove acceptable to the soldiers and at the same time beneficial and practical.

We read of a Lowell boy whose experience in the war zone, upon his return to the United States, seems to have been summed up in the headline used with his story, "Wounded, Shocked and Married." Happy enough termination of his military adventures, we should say, in view of the fact that so many couples have been married and then shocked and wounded, the treaty of peace being finally signed in the divorce court.

Salem gave up its federal employment office which had done good work all through the war period, or at least relinquished it in the sense that when the federal government announced it had no funds to continue the office, Salem let the office go out of existence. We may feel rather pleased here in Lowell, that our community is to retain the federal employment office. Without doubt it is a great help in getting the soldiers placed in suitable employment as they return.

Supposing Mr. Lodge and Mr. Lowell had decided it was worth, so far as the disposition of the money was concerned, a dollar a head for people to come to Symphony hall and hear them debate the League of Nations, a good round sum would be realized for some worthy cause; but the purpose of the debate is to get clear ideas on an important issue, not to bleed the public.

The fact that on last Saturday and on Monday to some extent, a total of about $50,000 was put in circulation by Lowell banks that paid it out in varying sums to persons who hold bonds of the Third Liberty loan, reminds us that it is certainly a thing for our merchants and others to be rather pleased over, that six times a year about every two months, as it so happens, the amount of bond interest paid will equal this same sum.

No Lowell person will doubt that whatever of honor is extended to Gen. Clarence Edwards when he is the guest of the municipality on Friday, it will be given to a real warrior and true soldier.

Emblem of His Business

Senator Blanchard scored a hearty laugh while he was discussing the apple blossom, during the debate on the state flower, by a good story well told. A tailor decorated his new store with the painting of an apple, said the senator, and a neighboring merchant asked him what the painting of the fruit was for. "What," said the tailor, "that is an emblem of my business."

"How in thunder is an apple an emblem of the tailoring business?" asked the other, wonderingly.

"Why," answered the man of shears, "if they had been no apple there wouldn't have been no need for

His Favorite Brand

As he polished his customer's shoes the bootblack puffed at the end of a cigar. Thinking to have a little fun at the youth's expense, the customer asked him if he always smoked cigars. "O, yes; pretty often," declared the youth.

"What brand do you generally smoke?" was the next question. "Robinson Crusoe, sir," came the reply.

The customer pondered awhile. "I never heard of that brand," he said. "It's a name I've given 'em myself," said the youth. "You see, governor, old Crusoe was a castaway."—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

Playful Pickered

People watching those pickered shown several days in a tank in a Brockton window have learned something about the habits and ways of that fish.

"They must be about all in," ventured one observer, noting how the long, slim fellows lay motionless and apparently lifeless. Then a man who knows something of fishing spoke up.

"That's the way of a pickered," he said. "I have seen them doing that same act in a pond. There won't be a movement until some shiner or other small fish swims close up. Then the pickered gets into motion like a flash and it's all over with the shiner."

One day a fisherman dropped in to suggest that while pickered were shown in the aquarium the accompanying fishing tackle in the window was of the sort used in luring trout. Saturday the pickered disappeared from the tank and trout succeeded them.—Brockton Enterprise.

Identifying Him

"Sorter queer thing happened at my house t'other day," related Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark. "Wife, she said that the next time I send the doctor going past I'd better yell at him to come in and take a look at our least boy. Repear. The little feller had been kinder puny around for a few days, according to her story. I told her I hadn't noticed it, but Runt, our next boy, 'peared to be sorter off his feed."

"Looky at him now," says I, "but there, teeny playing with the dogs. Like it was the last thing he'd do on earth."

"Why that ain't Runt!" says she. "It's Beareat!"

"Well, you ort to know. If anybody does," says I. "But, all the same, that's Runt! They're about of a size, and—"

"Runt—nuthin!" says she. "That's Beareat!"

"Beareat—the deuce!" says I. "Call him and see."

"Aho, she done it, and the little cuss didn't answer. Then I called him and he didn't pay any attention to me, either. That struck us both as kinder quaint, and we went out and drug him around to the rain barrel and washed his face. And I'll hushin' if it was either of 'em! It was some devilish kid that we didn't remember of ever having laid eyes on before. Instead of which we found out later that he was a newcomer's child that had mixed up with our kids a few days before and liked the place so well that he had stayed. I reckon if he hadn't took to acting sickish and got his face washed he'd have been right there till plumb yet."—Judge.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Some people claim the munition workers who flourished here last summer spent their big war wages and their bonuses as fast as they got their hands on them. There are just as many people who insist this is not so and that Lowell has moved up several points in the list of American cities whose workers are home owners. The inclination to spend is, in the majority of cases, more natural than the inclination to save. To this may be added that with the cost of living at the figure it was last summer and not much reduced this winter—saving on any kind of wages was rather a difficult proposition. One of the most peculiar incidents I have heard of in connection with the income tax business was told with regard to a man employed in the cartridge shop. He earned very fine wages in 1918. To be correct one should perhaps speak of his earnings as constituting a "salary." Anyhow, he earned enough so that he was eligible to pay quite an income tax. But like thousands of other people he had not foreseen the coming of an armistice so soon. Recently in order to pay his income tax he applied to a loan company and secured money to pay it. It is significant to observe that the penalty for not paying one's income tax is a penal sentence.

March 17, it seems, is a day of more than ordinary significance to some families and we have been reading of such a case in a city not far from Lowell. The man is head of a commercial school. His mother was born on March 17 and a brother was born on March 17. The school he now owns was started on a March 17 and when, some years later, he became its owner, the local papers were signed on March 17. Monday of this week, by the way, was the seventeenth anniversary of his being at the head of his school. It is small wonder that every March 17 he is the recipient of a postal card shower.

HELD LADIES' NIGHT

A most enjoyable ladies' night was held by the Eagles in Eagles' hall Monday evening when over 700 members of the organization and their friends gathered for an entertainment arranged through the courtesy of Miss Blanche Perron and later general dancing.

The entertainment program was as follows: Skit dance by Miss Helen Brown, Scotch dance by Miss A. Perry and Miss Helen Doran, liltation dance by the Misses Dora and Marie Dwyne, navy dance by Miss Helen Brown, Yankee Doodle dance and Irish jig by Miss Doris Connelly, whistling solo by Private Patrick Brady.

During intermission ice cream was served and the remainder of the evening was given over to general dancing. The committee in charge was as follows: Trustee Timothy Barry, chairman; Trustee John O'Connell, Peter Brady, Stephen Anderson, James Ward, George Cary, James Rourke, W. P. David and D. J. Hackett.

MEN'S FRATERNITY DISBANDS

The Men's Fraternity of the First Congregational church held its monthly meeting last evening, which also was its last as a fraternity, for during the business meeting it was voted to disband the organization to make way for a larger church program—mainly, a men's club. Dr. V. E. Darling as chairman of a committee previously appointed to consider the formation of a new men's club, with a big object, reported the result of the committee's deliberations and outlined a scheme for a club to assist young men in securing a college education; to provide attractions of various kinds for young men, and to bring speakers of national reputation and men of attainment to the city in courses of lectures. Details will be worked out and reported at a time when a special meeting will be called by the pastor.

LOWELL WINS 11 TO 9

Forced to the Limit in Fast and Clean Game With Lawrence—Harkins Stars

Lawrence, playing his best and cleanest game seen here this season, gave Lowell a great battle at the Crescent rink last night, and it was not until the final few minutes of play that Lowell took the lead to have and to hold. The score was: Lowell 11, Lawrence 9.

The game was a nip and tuck affair from beginning to end. It was tied up seven times during the 15 minutes of play. The old time rivalry, which has been conspicuous by its absence in the last few games, was there with bells on, and the rollers for both teams were given plenty of chance to cheer and jeer. A large delegation came in from "down below," and they greatly enjoyed the work of their favorites. The game was a smooth and scientific exhibition, both teams showing some classy form work.

Lowell's play was not quite as smooth as usual, owing to the absence of Asquith from the lineup, as a result of injuries received at Worcester Saturday night. Jack Finnell, old Lowell favorite, filled in, and while he did a pretty good job, he was not familiar with the Lowell style and consequently the other members of the outfit were forced to shoulder added responsibilities.

There was action every moment and Harkins, Hart and Griffith turned in their usual splendid exhibition on the offensive. Harkins' playing was particularly brilliant. He scored five of Lowell's goals and directed his attack and "red" his pole in expert fashion.

Hart and Griffith got three apiece. Finnell made a drive the entire length of the floor. Harkins was at the mouth of the crease, and just netted the "apple" in. Many thought Finnell was entitled to the goal, but after the game the referee and the other players, said Harkins was responsible for it.

After over seven minutes of play, Lowell scored the first goal of the night. Quigley then tied it up. Harkins followed, but in quick order Harrold tied the count was knotted as the period ended.

Lawrence jumped out in front in the second session, when Fahrner and Harrold came through. Harkins and Hart registered from Lowell and again it was a tie. Griffith put Lowell in front, but Fahrner broke through with one, making it five all. Again Griffith landed one, but just before the period ended, Fahrner counted again. Score 6 to 5.

In the third period Harkins got two. Quigley and Harrold followed with a brace. Tied again. Hart broke the knot, but Quigley tied it again. Time was almost up, when Harkins counted and to make victory certain Griffith drove in a "good night." The summary:

LOWELL: Harrold, 1; Harkins, 1; Griffith, 1; Fahrner, 1; Hart, 1; Lowell, 1; Harkins, 1; Harrold, 1; Finnell, 1; Pencil, 1. LAWRENCE: Fahrner, 1; Harrold, 1; Harkins, 1; Griffith, 1; Hart, 1; Lowell, 1; Harkins, 1; Harrold, 1; Finnell, 1; Pencil, 1.

(First Period) Scored by: Lowell 11, Lawrence 9. Time: 15 minutes. Referee: Graham. Goalkeepers: Lowell, 1; Lawrence, 1.

(Second Period) Scored by: Lowell 11, Lawrence 9. Time: 15 minutes. Referee: Graham. Goalkeepers: Lowell, 1; Lawrence, 1.

(Third Period) Scored by: Lowell 11, Lawrence 9. Time: 15 minutes. Referee: Graham. Goalkeepers: Lowell, 1; Lawrence, 1.

Summary: Score—Lowell 11, Lawrence 9. Referee: Graham. Goalkeepers: Lowell, 1; Lawrence, 1.

POLO LEAGUE STANDING

Lowell 11, Lawrence 9. Time: 15 minutes. Referee: Graham. Goalkeepers: Lowell, 1; Lawrence, 1.

TONIGHT will be a big night at Salem. The Salem team, strengthened by the acquisition of "Red" Williams of Providence, will play an All Star team composed of representatives of all other teams in the league. The money realized from the game will go to the soldiers and sailors in the All Star lineup, two Lowell men will appear, Harkins and Griffith. The game will start at Salem playing its regular season against Higgins and Harkins, Harkins, Griffith, centre, Doherty, half-back, and Conley, goal. Later Hardy of Lawrence will replace Griffith. After the first period, Alexander will drop out and "Red" Williams will go in to team up with his brother "Kid."

Worcester with Lee Taylor and "Horse" Higgins on the rush line will play Lowell at the Crescent rink, Friday night.

"Knobby" Knowlton, the newly appointed referee made his first appearance here last night, and he gave general satisfaction.

SALEM DEFEATED

Jean and Gardner Mix It Up at New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, March 18.—New Bedford won from Salem last night, 8 to 5. The goals came to each team in bunches. New Bedford getting three, then Salem five and New Bedford five. Some excitement was caused when Jean and Gardner mixed it up lively on two occasions. The summary:

NEW BEDFORD: Lincoln 3, Hart 2, Farrell 2. Salem: Alexander 1, Williams 1, Rushes 1, Conley 1, Purcell 1. Referee: Graham.

BOYLE IN FINE FORM FOR BOUT

Phinney Boyle announces that he is in great condition for his bout with Johnny Buckley of South Boston at the Crescent A.A. tomorrow night. He has trained carefully for the match, and says that he never felt more confident in his life. Boyle is convinced that he is a success at the fight game, he must train, and this he has resolved to do for all coming matches. When in condition few men in his weight have a thing on him. This was shown conclusively in the decisive manner in which he defeated Charley Parker at Lawrence on Feb. 22. In tackling Buckley he will meet a very rugged and aggressive performer, who has also put in his time in the ring. Boyle is anxious to land both of these and hence realizes that he must win tomorrow night, to go through with the Boston fight. He's out to win and show the home folks that he has regained his old time form. There will be three other bouts, Frank Molins of Lowell and Young Joseph of this city will meet in the semi-final.

TWO HOT CONTESTS

Two red hot contests took place in the Kirtledge Minor Bowling League last evening, and a large delegation of rollers were on hand to help their favorites on or the wire. The Mathews and the Lawrence Mfg. Co. teams went to a draw, although the latter team at the end of the second string appeared to have the game on ice. The "Maths" came through with a garrison finish, however, and took the last string and total. The Baldwins and Royal Riverides locked horns in the final and the latter took three points. The rolling of Ryan and Bowers was the feature of the evening. The score:

FRANKIE WALSH WINS AT ARMORY A.A.

Frankie Walsh of Lowell got back at Young Joseph of New Bedford at the Armory A.A. last night and won an easy decision. The Whaler slipped Walsh a bitter pill two weeks ago, but he stood pretty even today. It was the Lowell boy's fight all the way last night and many local fans who saw him work were enthusiastic over his return to real form. Jimmy Mahan, his manager, also made arrangements last night to show Joe Armstrong of Lowell in the near future.

LOUIS BOGASH AND O'BRIEN WALLOPED

Eddie Fitzsimmons of South Boston gave Louie Bogash of Lowell a thrashing last night in Boston. The latter's second string threw the fight in to the ring in the seventh round. Johnny "Club" of New York showed too much class for Louis Bogash and Brielepe in the 12-round bout and received an easy decision.

WINNERS IN NEAR EAST CAMPAIGN

The final reports in the Near East campaign are now tabulated and the prizes have been awarded to teams and individual workers. The First Congregational church team won a handsome clock for collecting the largest amount of money, and the St. Anne's team also won a clock for collecting a dollar or more from the largest number of individuals. The third team prize went to the First Baptist church. There were three wrist watches offered as prizes to individual workers, and were won by Otis W. Butler, W. W. Buzzell and Alfred Anderson.

WILLARD AND DEMPSEY MANAGERS CONFER

NEW YORK, March 18.—At an informal conference here last night, the managers of Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey discussed the heavy-weight championship contest, scheduled for July 1, with Promoter Tex Rickard preparatory to arranging for preliminary training. Willard was represented by Ray Archer, while Dempsey was represented by Jack Kearns. Both managers stated that they were in this city prepared to engage sparring partners for their principals, and each carried a list of heavy-weight boxers from which it was expected they would be selected.

Archer said that he was prepared to take at least two such helpers back to Lawrence, Kan., with him when he leaves for Willard's home town at the end of the week.

According to the champion's manager, Willard has already begun light physical work and is a trim boxer, 276 pounds in weight. He is particularly desirous of getting sparring partners about the height and weight of Dempsey and in order to be acceptable they must be fast, hard-hitting, two-handed punchers. Willard will not use the heavy type of partner with whom he trained when he was preparing for Johnson in Havana.

The champion will do all of his work at home in Lawrence and his weeks before the bout, when, according to the terms of his contract with Rickard, he will move to the scene of the battle. In the interim, however, Willard will find time to star in a moving picture drama, in which he will appear as the hero. He will be filmed doing his training work, which will take part in a ring battle and presumably will at some stage of the picture rescue the heroine. Willard's agent is expected to submit himself to the camera while today for a week or 10 days of rest before engaging in an athletic vaudeville tour of a month, during which he will swing as far west as Kansas and then by a southern route, return to the east. Before he leaves he expects to purchase a large farm near Prohok, N. D., where the challenger will do such training as may be necessary before moving on to the scene of the bout.

Kearns said that Dempsey weighed 157 pounds at present, and would enter the ring at between 162 and 165, according to the altitude at which the bout is to be staged.

Rickard plans to return to his Texas oil fields today and will be absent from this city for several weeks. He stated positively last night that he would not announce the site of the contest, the referee or other details until April, and that he did not expect to investigate any prospective fight sites while away.

WILLARD AND DEMPSEY $50,000,000 LOAN TO 9 AWAY, BUT CABINET MEETING IS HELD

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Fifty million dollars was loaned yesterday to Director General Hines by the war finance corporation as the first advance for the railroad administration since it was left without funds by failure of the congressional appropriation. Other loans will follow as rapidly as they can be arranged.

The loan was made to the director general as representative of railroads, which the war finance corporation considers essential war industries.

Collateral was given in the form of railroad bonds and notes, mainly. It is understood, bonds of the Pennsylvania railroad. The loan was made at 6 percent, the same as is charged by the director general for most advances to railroads, and is payable July 15, with the right on the part of the director general to repay before that date.

The railroad administration will use the money for its more pressing obligations.

WILLARD AND DEMPSEY $50,000,000 LOAN TO 9 AWAY, BUT CABINET MEETING IS HELD

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The mere absence of President Wilson, Vice Pres. Marshall and Secs. Lansing, Baker, Daniels, Lane, Redfield, Houston and Wilson failed to prevent the holding of a cabinet meeting at the White House yesterday.

It being A. Mitchell Palmer's first meeting since he was designated attorney general, he was on the job, having returned yesterday from a vacation in Pennsylvania. Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, stepped in before starting for Minneapolis and Chicago on a speaking trip. Postmaster General Burleson attended, and so did Solicitor Frank Polk, acting secretary of state. Four must have been a quorum, for they remained in session some time. None would discuss the meeting after it was over.

Sec. Houston was in Washington, but busy at the department of agriculture. Lane is in the south looking at home cut-over timbers that may be available for his soldier colonization plans. Lansing is in Europe, Daniels is on his way there, and Baker is in the far west. Sec. Wilson was in New Jersey and Redfield en route to the middle west on a speaking tour.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 19.—Rhode Island brewers have taken no action toward the resumption of making 2½ per cent beer. A meeting of the state association of brewers will probably be called for the latter part of the week.

CONCORD, N. H., March 19.—The state house representatives today killed a bill providing for the 48 hour work week for women and for minors under 18 years of age.

SPRINGFIELD, March 19.—The United States army here, it was announced today, has been assigned the work of repairing the service-warrior and other small arms used abroad and in other camps of this country. So far as possible, former service men are being employed in this work.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., March 19.—Notices were posted today at the plants of the Quinby Windham cotton manufacturing company in this city and Danforth, R. I., announcing the resumption of full working time of 55 hours a week. Eight hundred hands are affected.

BROCKTON, March 19.—So great has been the number of applications for liquor licenses in seven towns in the Old Colony district that voted license last week, the selection of several towns today decided to hold a conference at Rockland this week to consider the situation.

AUGUSTA, Me., March 19.—The revenue granting women the right to vote for presidential electors, was passed today to be engrossed in the Maine house of representatives. The vote was 51 to 55. It already has been passed in the senate. Both branches had refused to attach a referendum amendment to the measure.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The case against Jeremiah A. O'Leary was characterized as a "frame-up" today in the closing argument of his counsel, Col. Thomas Fielder.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The $20,000,000 advanced by the war finance corporation to the railroad administration will be used only to pay current bills and to meet obligations already incurred with railroad companies. Director General Hines announced today.

MILFORD, March 19.—The police received word from Manchester, Conn., of the arrest of two men for whom search had been made in connection with the recent discovery of a large quantity of dynamite caps and stolen goods in an unoccupied house here. The men will be brought here charged with larceny.

AT BOSTON BANQUET Mayor Percy D. Thompson, Chief Edward F. Saunders and a number of other city officials attended the annual meeting and banquet of the New England Fire Chiefs' club in Boston this afternoon.

VARNUM PARK FLAG Old Glory will be hoisted to the breeze on the new flagpole in Varnum park at First and Bridge streets on April 15, Patriots day, according to an announcement made this afternoon. It is planned to have fitting exercises accompany the flag raising.

Attacks United States Continued of the United States on vital matters of policy.

He complained of the misuse of American citizenship by former refugees who have returned and become agitators here, and declared persons of this character were discrediting Americans.

The Omsk official also said there was a tendency to judge severely acts of expediency and necessity which his government had taken. He said these acts were not fully understood. He cited the recent arrests of members of the Zensky, which he declared were justifiable and were made in accordance with military law.

His government wanted sympathy. This official added, in his efforts to establish order but if it could not have it he said he believed it was entitled to strict neutrality toward its enemies, meaning, of course, the restraining from encouragement to the Bolsheviks.

Among the troops and the villagers along the railways there is a sullenness and unfriendliness which did not exist a month ago. This is due, besides the Cossack incident, to a refusal of General Graves to respond to appeal by the inhabitants along the Ural and Amur railways and the Russian mines district, where the Americans are stationed, for protection against outrages by Russian soldiers. To these appeals as well as a request from the Japanese in the Blagoveshchensk district for a company of troops to fight the so-called Bolshevik General Graves have made the same reply, namely, that he would be exceeding his authority and violating the American policy toward Russia.

General Graves' statements strongly doubt whether all Russians who have taken up arms in eastern Siberia can properly be termed Bolsheviks. The peasants for months have been subjected to brutality at the hands of troops, chiefly Cossacks, most of whom represent the Omsk government. On the pretext of searching for Bolsheviks, the troops have raided villages in the countryside, murdering and imprisoning men and beating and intimidating women. There have been reports of such occurrences in many districts and individual cases which have been investigated have established the truth of some of these reports, and the Japanese apparently have adopted the course of supporting the troops that are committing the outrages. Out of all of this has grown the charge that General Graves has not shown a proper spirit of cooperation and has displayed a tendency to pro-Bolshevism.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Lowell aerie, No. 223, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a regular meeting last evening in their hall in Central street with worthy President David J. Blackett presiding. Eight new members were admitted and 15 applications received. A busy program of social activities for the year was outlined and included a banquet April 27 for about 1500 members of the order, the bringing to Lowell of the California Exposition Shows during the week of May 25 to the Lakeview avenue show grounds, an outing to be held in August and the dedicating of the new monument in St. Joseph's cemetery in September.

The ladies' night committee voted to continue holding these affairs once a month. Under the good of the order remarks were made by Thomas E. Quinn, Peter Brady, P. W. P. John A. Cahin, John M. Hogan, Stephen Anderson, Timothy F. Barry, Martin Crowe and the worthy president.

Visiting brothers were present from Worcester, Haverhill and Pittsfield. The following members were elected delegates to the state convention in June: Worthy President David J. Blackett; Secretary John M. Hogan; Assistant Secretary M. J. Crowe and Past Master R. J. Flynn.

NO SCARCITY HERE OF FARM HELP

There will be no scarcity of farm help in Lowell and vicinity this year as was the case last spring when many men who usually worked on farms went to the munition plants. Applications from men who desire employment on the farms of central Massachusetts are now beginning to come to the local office of the U. S. Employment bureau in large numbers, and Mr. Cronin stated to The Sun today that by the latter part of the month he would have a list of about 200.

More men are seeking farm work at present than at any time during the past two years. There are many experienced farm workers who are about to resume their old line of employment and the farmers in this vicinity will be in a position to cultivate a larger acreage than in 1917 and 1918.

The Lowell bureau is making plans to furnish all the help the farmers in this section may need. About the latter part of the month the work of securing farm hands will commence in earnest and there will be no trouble to meet the demand.

ARMED MEN ROBBED BANK OF $5000

FREEMONT, N. Y., March 19.—Four armed men held up the employees of the First National bank at 11 a. m. today and taking all the cash on the counter, escaped in an automobile. It was reported that they obtained about $5000.

means that a large area of land will have to be used for the purpose and while the water department already owns considerable land in that section, there is not enough to carry out the commissioner's plans. Twenty-five new wells could be installed on the land already in the possession of the water department, but to carry out the project to its proper completion, adjacent land will be needed.

This land is now owned by Apostolas A. Johnson and George E. Vozelos and consists of 329,000 square feet. According to the latest assessment, it is valued at half a cent a square foot, the total value of both lands and buildings being $2550. It is understood that the owners want considerably more than this figure for the land, so much more that the water department officials do not see any recourse but to seize it.

A 16-inch water pipe has already been laid along the territory where the new wells are to be installed as far as the city's land extends. Before it can go further, the city must acquire the adjacent land and Commissioner Morse is now preparing the necessary deeds to be taken in this process.

Everything is in shape for the reception of General Edwards here Friday. The reception in the aldermanic chamber will begin at 5 o'clock and will be open to the public.

Those who wish to meet the general will enter by the main entrance to the chamber and will leave through the city messenger's office. In this way the line will be kept in motion continually and no congestion should result.

Mayor Thompson says that there has been a little misunderstanding concerning his request that the names of Lowell soldiers who have served in the 26th Division and returned home be sent to him. He has received a large number of names of men who are still overseas with the division. These are not what he wants. He desires only the names of the Lowell men who served in the division and who are now in Lowell. Special reservations will be made for them at the address to be given by the general at the state armory in the evening.

The exercises at the armory will be very brief as it is felt that people will want to hear General Edwards more than anybody else. A band will be present at city hall during General Edwards' reception, will head the parade of Spanish War Veterans and state guard companies that will escort him to the armory and will also be in attendance at the evening meeting.

More School Annex It is understood that an order to authorize the school committee to build an annex to the Morey school in the Highlands is all prepared and will be presented at next Tuesday's meeting of the municipal council. There is considerable anticipation as to how the members of the council will line up on the matter.

LOWELL STORES CLOSE QUIET AT PATRIOTS DAY

Merchants of Lowell in an executive meeting this morning voted by a large majority to close their stores on Saturday, April 13, which also is Easter Sunday. The meeting was called by the board of trade and about 50 merchants, representing all lines of business and irrespective of board of trade affiliations were present in the board rooms.

D. S. O'Brien was chosen chairman of the meeting. The question before the merchants called forth considerable discussion, and the prevailing feeling was that as a holiday the people of the city would seek recreation and but little business would transpire. When put to a vote a large majority were in favor of closing, with the added stipulation that the stores remain open on the Friday evening previous.

Although all the stores were not represented at the meeting it was felt that every downtown establishment will take the same action. The meeting also voted to ask the board of trade to advertise the fact throughout the city.

TAKES OFFICE AS NEW YORK'S ARCHBISHOP

NEW YORK, March 19.—Prominent dignitaries of the Catholic church assembled here today to witness the installation of the Most Rev. Patrick Joseph Hayes, as archbishop of New York, in St. Patrick's cathedral, late this afternoon. Archbishop Giovanni Bonzano of Washington, the apostolic delegate to the United States, will represent Pope Benedict XV and officiate at the rites. More than 1000 priests in the archdiocese, including many army and navy chaplains, will participate in the ceremony of kissing the arch-episcopal ring in token of their obedience.

The conferring of the pallium will not take place until after Easter.

FAVOR ASQUITH AS HEAD OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

LONDON, March 19.—There is a strong feeling in political and diplomatic circles in Paris in favor of inviting Herbert H. Asquith, formerly British premier, to become the first president of the League of Nations, according to the Daily Mirror.

CLEVELAND TROLLEY CO. TO DEFEY LABOR BOARD

CLEVELAND, O., March 19.—The Cleveland Railway company will abide by its agreement with the city and Carmen's union not to employ women conductors after March 1, notwithstanding an order of the war labor board directing the reinstatement of 61 conductresses, John J. Stanley, president of the company, announced yesterday.

BAVARIA PLANT AT WORK ON GIANT AIRPLANE

BERLIN, Saturday, March 15 (By the Associated Press).—The Rumpier airplane factory in Bavaria, which produced the noted Taube airplanes, has now under construction a giant airplane intended for a trans-Atlantic flight.

REPORT ALLIED FORCES EVACUATE ODESSA

LONDON, March 19.—Official reports have been received that a critical state of affairs exists in Odessa. No confirmation could be obtained of a report that the city was being evacuated by allied forces, but the report was not denied.

BOY GETS MEDAL FOR SAVING LIFE

SPRINGFIELD, March 19.—Leon Hamilton, aged 16, of West Springfield, today received from the Massachusetts humane society a bronze medal for bravery in saving life. Hamilton in January rescued his brother Lehis, age 18, who had broken through the ice of the Agawam river while the two were hunting. Leon stated past the hole in the ice with a long pole, which his brother grasped.

RECESS APPOINTMENTS OF POSTMASTERS ANNOUNCED AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Recess appointments of postmasters, made necessary because of the failure of nominations to be confirmed by the senate before adjournment and announced today, at the White House included the name of Thomas F. Lennihan, of Westerly, R. I.

OPPOSE SUNDAY BASKETBALL

The Lowell Federation of Churches went on record yesterday as being unalterably opposed to commercialized sports on Sunday, including specifically baseball and other games included in house bill No. 66. At a meeting of the federation held at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. J. E. Kennedy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was appointed a delegate to present such a resolution at a hearing on the bill, to be given today at the state house.

Rev. George A. Gordon, of Boston, agent of Massachusetts Anti-Saloon league, addressed the federation members and the Lowell ministers voted to accept the league's offer to display its exhibit of prohibition propaganda in this city early in May.

NOVEL EXPERIMENT BY ARMY MEDICAL MEN

NEW YORK, March 19.—The medical staffs of the army hospitals here will conduct a novel experiment in psychotherapy on March 25, when the parade of the 27th Division will be held on Fifth avenue.

Among the several thousand wounded and convalescent soldiers in the hospitals are many suffering from shell shock and nervous collapse. As the treatment is largely mental, the physicians hope that the sight of soldiers on the march will have the desired psychological effect and tend to bring back their memories. Soldiers suffering from shell shock and nervous breakdown, will be assigned seats in the grandstand, with physicians and nurses in attendance. Those whose condition is more serious are to view the parade from buses or invalid chairs.

The physicians are confident that the result will prove beneficial.

TRYING TO END N. Y. HARBOR DEADLOCK

NEW YORK, March 19.—Under the surface of defiance that continued to mark the harbor strike today, there were indications that a settlement was being arranged to end the deadlock existing between the strikers and the private boat owners. On the question of an eight hour day, however, the strikers declared there could be no compromise.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING FOR DISABLED MEN

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Through several large donations to a grant fund authorized by congress, the federal board for vocational education is now able to offer vocational training to American citizens who were disabled while serving in the armies of the allied nations. This privilege is not accorded under the vocational education act although an alien who served in the American army and was disabled, is entitled to the training.

HOW TO GET THE $60 BONUS

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Regulations governing the payment of $60 bonus to honorably discharged soldiers were amended by the war department yesterday to permit the acceptance by discharged officials of a "true copy" of the original certificates were required, but it was found that many soldiers refused to part with the papers, preferring to lose the bonus rather than risk the loss of official evidence of their honorable release from the army.

All copies submitted under the amendment authorized yesterday must be certified by the army recruiting officer nearest the soldier's residence.

TO STABILIZE STEEL PRICES

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Representatives of the steel industry met today with the newly appointed industrial price stabilization board for the purpose of agreeing on plans for reduction and stabilization of steel prices. The conference was the first of a series to be held by the industrial board with representatives of the basic industries.

WILL SPEAK TOMORROW EVENING Lieut. W. C. MacBrayne, who recently returned from the front will speak before the members of Lowell council, K. of C., tomorrow evening after the regular business session.

Absorption Process Makes Faces Young

Success at last has come to scientists who for years have sought some method of removing the untidy wrinkles which so easily beset the face. It has been amply demonstrated that common mercurized wax (sold by druggists in ounce packages) entirely removes the wrinkles and also cleanses the face. The solution also cleanses the youthful, rosie skin beneath the wax and is applied at night. The cold cream and washed off in the morning. The absorption also cleanses the pores, increasing the skin's breathing capacity and preserving its color and natural beauty of the new skin.

A simple and harmless wrinkle-remover which has also proved quite successful in cases of unsightly complexion which would be both painful and harmless. The new process is so simple, so inexpensive, the wonder is no one has discovered it long ago. It has been amply demonstrated that common mercurized wax (sold by druggists in ounce packages) entirely removes the wrinkles and also cleanses the face. The solution also cleanses the youthful, rosie skin beneath the wax and is applied at night. The cold cream and washed off in the morning. ## BOOKS FOR SAILORS AND SOLDIERS

The need for book and magazine donations for the sailors and soldiers was never greater than at the present and Librarian Chase of the Lowell city library finds it a problem to get in enough of both to keep up the standard of fortnightly shipments he has set for the Lowell library.

Mr. Chase and his staff plans to send about 200 volumes every two weeks and it is by keeping the cause before the public that the local library has so successfully kept up its end of the book campaign since the armistice was signed.

"To maintain army morale during the next six months, at least 1,000,000 more fiction and miscellaneous books are urgently needed," Mr. Chase told The Sun today. "The educational libraries, aggregating 200,000 volumes, which have been sent over there since the signing of the armistice for schools established by the army education commission, are being given quick distribution, and many more are required for the boys."

Twenty-five hundred men of the A. E. F. have recently had the identical book they asked for sent them from one of the big main libraries in France, according to Librarian Chase. In addition to the special mail service between individuals, 14 regional libraries have been established in various French and German cities.

Book collections have also been placed in all the recreation huts and in many cases have gone direct to military units. The answer to the continuous call for books and magazines, the latter not more than three months old, has been generous.

HAND CRUSHED

James A. Flynn of 12 Cedar street, a pressman for the Courier-Citizen Co., at its Middle street plant, had his right hand badly crushed at his work at 11:30 o'clock this morning. He was taken in the ambulance to St. John's hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his index finger.

TWO MINOR FIRES

A still alarm at 8:20 this morning called two pieces of apparatus to Thompson's block, Chestnut and High streets, for a closer fire. The closet and adjoining room were damaged somewhat.

House 5 was sent to the house numbered 7, rear of 37 Hanover street, for a bad fire at 11:25 a. m.

AGAIN IMPOSTORS

Are soliciting umbrella repairing throughout the city using our name and reputation as incentives to get business.

We don't object to anyone who cares to solicit in umbrella repairing, something we find it unnecessary to do, receiving all work of this kind voluntarily, but we do object and most strenuously to the using of our name by irresponsible in an endeavor to procure business.

Candidly we cannot secure the prosecution of these illicit persons without the support of the parties solicited, under the pretense.

Therefore we will appreciate whatever assistance is rendered to us in the running down and eliminating of these worthless characters.

If you have suspicions that the person soliciting umbrella repairing, etc., in our name is an impostor, ask him to prove his identification to your satisfaction—this he will be unable to do if an irresponsible.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION*Mystery Surrounds Death of Rich Woman, Caused by Explosion in Home

OAKLAND, Cal., Mar. 18.—The killing of Mrs. George Greenwood, wife of a banker of this city, by an explosion at the Greenwood home here, last night, remained almost as much a mystery today as when Mr. Greenwood, aroused by the explosion, looked from an upstairs window to see his wife's body in the garden below. The police had two slender clues consisting of six small pieces of galvanized iron removed from the body by surgeons, along with a bit of lead, clothing, and the fact that in January, 1918, a letter received by Mr. Greenwood demanded delivery of $3000 at a certain spot under penalty of having his home destroyed by an explosion. The letter was signed "C. C. of C." which initials also were appended to a threatening letter received by Governor William D. Stephens before the executive mansion at Sacramento was dynamited a year ago. This led the police to believe that the same persons were responsible for both explosions. Nothing had been developed today to show whether the explosive was hurled at Mrs. Greenwood, whether she picked it up and it exploded in her hands, or whether she caused the detonation by stumbling over it. Nor had anything developed to indicate the nature of the explosive. Mr. Greenwood declared that neither he nor his wife had any enemies and that he was at a loss to account for the explosion.

TO REMOVE SPECIAL FORTS ABOUT PARIS

PARIS, Tuesday, March 18.—(Havas)—The chamber of deputies today authorized the removal of special fortifications about Paris which were erected shortly after the war began.

There are three rings of permanent fortifications about Paris. First, a solid wall of masonry 22 miles in circumference around the old sections of the city; second, a system of 17 detached forts arranged at intervals of two miles beyond the wall and making a circuit of the city 24 miles in extent; and third, an outer circle of forts 75 miles in length on the heights commanding the valley of the Seine. In August, 1914, special fortifications were erected, buildings demolished and trees which obstructed a clear view of the terrain about the city were cut down. It is probable that it is this system of fortifications which is to be dismantled.

BAY STATE BREWERS IN IMPORTANT MEETING

BOSTON, March 18.—The Brewers' Association of Massachusetts held a special meeting here today to consider whether its members would resume manufacture of 2.75 per cent beer. The association includes more than a score of firms, operating breweries in various parts of the state. Some of the brewers said in advance of the meeting that they favored immediate resumption of operations in view of the opinion of counsel for the United States Brewers' association that the manufacture of 2.75 per cent beer was within the law.

26TH TO GO DIRECT TO CAMP DEVENS

BOSTON, March 18.—Ships bearing units of the 26th Division will leave Boston for home on March 29. Colonel Albert S. Williams, chief of staff to General Edwards, announced yesterday, when he returned from Washington after conferring with the war department concerning the reception and entertainment of the 26th Division in this city.

Returning troops of the 26th Division will not be met at the army base supply buildings at South Boston, however, he declared. They will be sent immediately to Camp Devens, and after they have all assembled they will come to Boston and parade.

Every officer and man of the 26th Division will spend two days in Boston during the celebrations, according to the present plan of Colonel Williams. Half of the division will come to Boston on the morning previous to the day of the parade, and the other half on the morning of the parade. The first arrivals will return to Camp Devens on the night of the parade, and the others on the following night. The billings will be done at armories and at Mechanics' building.

Permanent plans for the reception and entertainment of the division by the citizens of Massachusetts will be formulated at a meeting of the city, state and legislative committees in the state house Thursday. At the meeting it will be decided where the grandstands for the parade will be erected and how the $200,000 which was appropriated by the legislature yesterday will be spent.

AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The C.E. Society of St. Paul's M.E. church provided excellent entertainment for more than 125 of the church folk last night in the vestry. Several classes of the Sunday school took part in competitive games and there was also a photograph gallery and shadow pictures cleverly exhibited by Miss Ruth West and Raymond Stevens. The committee in charge were Miss Marion Dougherty, Miss Myrtle Rugg, Miss Ella Wagner and Charles Moore. The accompanists were Mrs. C. E. Richardson and Miss Evelyn Dougherty. Refreshments followed the entertainment and games were enjoyed until 10 o'clock.

SUN BREVITIES

Best printing, Tobin's, Associate bldg. Fire and Liability Insurance, Daniel J. O'Brien, Wyman's Exchange. J. P. Donohoe, 228 Hildreth Bldg., real estate and insurance. Telephone. Chief Clerk of the Lowell naval recruiting office reports the forwarding of three men to Boston today, all enlisting as apprentice seamen. They were: Frank S. Somers, 55 Rogers street; Lynn; Ralph Singer, 32 Prospect street; Everett and Joseph Mollahan, 55 North street, Lowell.

The rain and sleet storm which has hovered over the city since Sunday is responsible for a rainfall of 0.39, according to Locks and Canals figures. To many people it seemed that the amount should be much in excess of this figure, but the storm was broken up for the greater part of the time by intermittent drizzles. Practically every bit of the frost is out of the ground now and snows may well be beaten into plough shares.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and hear Catarrhal deafness, or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears, go to your druggist and get a quantity of Parmital (parbitol strength), and add to it a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing becomes easy and the noise stops dropping in the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsin coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two tea-spoons will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get multifold coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

TWO MEN SHOT IN BLACK HAND RAID

BOSTON, March 18.—In an effort to catch the writer of a black hand letter demanding $2000 from Vincenzo Barone of 11 Waterford street, one man was perhaps fatally shot by police inspectors last night and an innocent passerby was accidentally shot by officers on Waterford street in the South End.

Alfredo Ferraro, 26 years old of 34 Everett street, East Boston, is in the City hospital with two bullet wounds in the abdomen. He is in a critical condition, and the hospital authorities last night feared that he would not live. His name is on the danger list.

The other man shot is Peter Rastus, 19 years old, of 3 Berkeley street, who was passing along Washington street, at the corner of Waterford street, when the police inspectors were firing their revolvers in an endeavor to shoot down Ferraro, who was fleeing from them. They had called upon him to stop after he had received a bundle in which was endeavor to shoot down Ferraro, who was supposed to be the $2000 demanded from Barone as the price of his life.

AN ACTIVE AGENT OF AMERICANIZATION

One of the most promising agencies of Americanization in Lowell at the present time is the International Institute for young women, which is doing splendid work among foreign girls and women. The institute has already outgrown its quarters in Palmer street, but as yet has not been able to acquire any other building downtown for its use.

The institute is the foreign branch of the Y. W. C. A. and is supported by it and the national war work council. Its activities are wide in scope and reach ten or more nationalities. At mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Peter Linehan. The choir sang the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Miss Mary Ryne and James Donnelly. Miss Gertrude Quigley presided at the organ. There were many beautiful floral offerings and spiritual bouquets. There were delegates present from the Eagles, Lowell Aerie, No. 223, consisting of the following members: Thomas P. Garlity, William F. Carey, Joseph Lynch, Charles Willett, from Court General Union, P. of A., Henry O'Donnell, C. R., Hector Phil, Stephen Green, John P. Hartley. The bearers were: Hector Phil, Henry O'Donnell, Charles Willett and Peter Shoughran. Burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. P. Linehan. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

IN MEMORIAM—1919

In loving remembrance of Frederick J. Wright who died March 19th, 1914:

We think we see his loving smile, Although five years have passed, But in our memory fresh he is, And will be to the last.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, wish to express our most sincere thanks to all our friends and relatives who so kindly assisted us in the hour of our bereavement at the death of our son and brother, Thomas J. Gordon. We also feel very grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual bouquets.

MRS. ELLEN GORDON and Family.

MASS NOTICE

There will be a month's mind mass in St. Michael's church, Thursday morning (March 20) at 8 o'clock for the repose of the soul of William F. Wynn. Friends invited.

Farmers Hold Meeting

Continued

In the east and is very threatening. It originates on quince trees and soon spreads to pear and apple trees and is very destructive. He urged orchardists who have quince trees in their orchards to do away with them. For in his opinion it is cheaper to buy quinces than to grow them under present conditions. He said the growing of quinces is all right on land far away from apple and pear trees.

"The life of an orchardist is not going to be rose in the future," said Mr. Jenks, "for we have passed our best period." At this point Mr. Jenks was asked about the San Jose scale and his reply was that it is now practically under control, but it may not be many years before the scale comes back strong again if necessary precautions are not taken.

Mr. Jenks then referred to the apple scale and said it must be controlled by spraying for this disease brings down the fruit from high grade to elder grade. He said it is best to spray every year in order to prevent the disease. Mr. Jenks told of the various ways of spraying and the preparations to be used in spraying and recommended strongly arsenate of lead with other chemical preparations. He warned his listeners not to do any spraying on very hot days, for this would result in burning the trees. The first spraying, he said, should be done about the middle of April and the second when the trees are budding. The third should be just about when the buds are falling off and the fourth two or three weeks later. "If you spray right you will get one dollar back for every 25 cents expended in labor and material," he said.

Eggs and Poultry

The next speaker was Robert F. Trask, also of the county bureau, who spoke at length on "Profitable Poultry Keeping." Mr. Trask said the raising of eggs for the market will never be as profitable as it has been during the past two or three years on account of the excellent quality of the western fresh eggs. He said the western fresh eggs although shipped from a greater distance are far superior to those raised in this part of the country and they can be raised cheaper in the west than in the east, but there is a great market and there will always be one for the fancy eggs raised in the east.

"There is a new sort of poultry business developing in this part of the country," said Mr. Trask, "and that is the poultry for the table. People are more interested in getting good poultry for meat than ever and that is on account of the high prices, and in this end of the poultry game we can compete easily with the western farmers. It is wise for the eastern farmer to plan to have table poultry for the market the whole year round. If a hen shows a tendency to stop laying at all, don't keep her, but market her for meat at once. The broiler business should be made a very profitable one and the only solution is to hatch chickens quicker than the other fellow. Chickens that are early hatched are stronger and healthier. Push out your broilers as fast as you can, but keep an eye on the market and if prices are dropping, keep your broilers for roasters." Mr. Trask also spoke at length on the backyard henneries and said this is a good field for the farmer to develop. City folks, he said, cannot raise chickens, but they will keep them for eggs and fancy prices can be obtained from them. Keep your eye on the city folks and keep them well supplied with good

War Work

Are needed at the local Y. M. C. A. to aid in entertaining visiting soldiers and sailors, Sunday evenings.

The men in uniform are given a grand good time, a light supper and good cheer.

The men held at Camp Devens are doing guard duty, kitchen, police and demobilization work, and are held there without any incentive and need recreation and help now more than ever, and of course we wish to do all we can for the over-sea men, many of whom are recovering from wounds, and who are visiting our city in great numbers.

Who Can Help?

Churches which will furnish food and entertainment. Any society, members of which are women, such as "King's Daughters," auxiliaries of organizations, organized school societies, etc., members of which will act as hostesses. These societies may furnish food and entertainment, or not, just as they prefer.

Also singers, readers, speakers and instrumental players, who will help entertain the men in uniform very informally.

Also men or women or organizations who will send ten to twenty dollars to pay for the supper for one of these nights. We do not receive any money from the National Y. M. C. A. for war work purposes.

All who wish to help in any way, address Edwin T. Shaw, Chairman War Work Committee, Y. M. C. A., or telephone 2276 or 877-W.
